Getting here:

Taxi: A taxi from Central (HK$160) will take between 30 to 40 minutes and from schools on Kowloon side (HK$40-100) around 10 to 30 minutes. If you are coming from Hong Kong side it's often hard to get a taxi to take you to the Shatin. Make sure that you ask if the taxi is a 'Cross-Harbour' taxi. A red taxi will be able to take you to any part of Hong Kong that you wish to go to with the exception of Lantau and Discovery Bay.

MTR: The nearest stop to school is Sha Tin Wai on the Brown Line. It is a 5 min walk (Exit B) to the Pok Hong Estate.

When you get here please go straight up the stairs to reception and ask them to call the careers office to let us know you are here.

Who is nearby:

The nearest shopping mall, which has a lot of restaurants where you can stop for lunch, is New Town Plaza (Shatin MTR station, Exit A). This mall is about 20 minutes away from campus by taxi. You can take either red or green taxis to get to campus. There are also shops and a café as well as traditional Hong Kong dai pai dong close to campus.

We know it can be helpful to plan to meet with a number of schools in the same area. The table below shows other schools on Kowloon side and approximate travel distances by car.

Useful information on Hong Kong

Where to stay:

Most people find that it is easier to stay on Hong Kong Island but there are great options both sides of the Harbour for accommodation and things to do and see.

Ovolo hotels are very popular and well located for places to eat in the evening. There are 2 very near to the south side of HK Island but there also 2 centrally located in Central and Sheung Wan. They also have free drinks and snacks.

The Holiday Inn in Soho offers a very affordable option in a good location for the MTR, taxis and restaurants.

Many visitors stay in the Courtyard by Marriott in the Western District as it is reasonable and has a good points programme. Taxis can sometimes be hard to get from here in the mornings, so best to allow more time just in case.

Jplus by Yoo is an award winning boutique hotel which offers free evening drinks and smart phones to guests. Located in the bustling Causeway Bay area with good transport links.

Eco Tree hotel and IBIS Sheung Wan offer well located reasonable european budget style accommodation. Both are located near to MTR, bus route as well as the ferry terminals.

Hotel Jen is very well located for getting around as it is next to HKU MTR station, a taxi rank and also not right in the centre so easy to get to schools on South, West and Kowloon side. Has a delicious malaysian restaurant.

OZO on Hennessey Road (between Admiralty and Wan Chai MTR stations) has also been given the thumbs up from other visitors to IS. Of particular note was the coffee shop next door (Coco Espresso) which reportedly serves 'gold standard' coffee!

Where to eat:

Cheap eats for those of you on a per diem:

Wanchai

Hay Hay cooked meats in Wanchai

Happy Veggies in WanChai is very cheap social enterprise and provides huge portions

Sabah - delicious malaysian food

Causeway Bay

Din Tai Fung

Delicious Thai

Sheung Wan/Sai Ying Pun Cooked Food centres (basically street food with aircon) You can bring your own drinks in from 7-11 too making it a bargain! Sit by the restaurant you wish to eat at.

Sheung Wan Cooked Food Centre (great Thai food in the back)

Queen Street Cooked Food Centre (great noodles, nepalese and vietnamese food)

Also try Dim Sum Square

TST/Kowloon: Branto (Indian curry) Hing Fat Roast Restaurant (local roasted meats and noodles)

Central: Tsim Chai Kee (wanton noodles and roast meats) Wang Fu (great noodle soups)

Ding Dim (well located - most dim sum is reasonable in HK) Seoul Bros - (Korean fusion)

North Point: Tung Po (Java road wet market) Of Anthony Bourdain fame - tasty food and beer from bowls.

Multiple Locations

Crystal Jade (dumplings & noodles) Din Tai Fung (Great Taiwanese dumplings) Genki Sushi

Some of our favourite delicious food options of various prices:

Loads of options on Elgin St in Central - Enoteca (tapas) Cicada (asian tapas) Linguini Fini (pasta delights)

Chong King (delicious chinese food though service can sometimes be an "experience")

Little Bao (trendy asian inspired deliciousness) BEP (great vietnamese) Maison Libanaise (pricey but wonderful middle eastern with great roof terrace)

Kennedy Town: Little Creatures (brewery with tasty eclectic menu) Cafe Siam (great thai right by the MTR) Chino (mexican/japanese - amazing!), Shoreditch ('Best of British" food)

Wanchai: WooLooMooLoo (great view!)

Causeway Bay: Red pepper, Sweet Basil

Kowloon Side: Craft beer at Kowloon Tap Room, Old School Cantonese and delicious duck at Spring Deer and michelin starred dimsum at Tim Ho Wan

Top tips:

Taxi change over happens 3:45-4:30 so finding a taxi during these times can be difficult.

Buy an Octopus card at the airport - you can use it for airport express ($100) to get you straight into the city - faster and cheaper than a taxi. You can also use it to buy drinks and snacks from 7-11/supermarkets, starbucks etc as well as for riding MTR, buses, ferries and tram.

If you have some free time, take a ferry to outlying islands – Lamma and Cheung Chau are good ones with start with. Simply take a ferry from the central ferry piers for around HK$30. You can also bring your own drinks and snacks for the 45 minute trip.

If you are here over a weekend, there are some great convenient hikes you can do with excellent views such as this one over Mount Butler and this one from Mui Wo to Pui O.

A treat to give yourself after a long day on your feet would be to get a foot massage or a pedicure - our favourite is Happy Foot as you don't need to book and it's reasonable, but there are lots of options.

Take the Star Ferry across the harbour or the tram along the north of the island (if it's not too hot!) - both are very cheap and a fun way to see more of the city.

Victoria Peak is a great place to visit but VERY busy on weekends. Escape the hustle and bustle at Nan Lian Garden next to the Chi Lin Nunnery.
